Sir,

I have the honour to state that Dr. Achyuta Rao claimed in his pay bill for December 1906 the local allowance of Rs. 500/- attached to the office of the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner with the Government of Mysore, from the 20th December 1906, the date on which he assumed officiating charge of the office, to the 31st idem and it was admitted, as reported in this office letter No. 3886/A.C.653 dated 5th January 1907. Subsequently Major. H.E. Drake Brockman also claimed the same allowance for the same period and as it had been passed to Dr. Achyuta Rao, it was, as reported in the said letter disallowed from the bill of Major Drake Brockman. The latter officer has not yet sent his pay bill for January 1907 for audit, but apparently he will prefer his claim to the local allowance for the whole month as he did for December 1906. Dr. Achyuta Rao has also included the local allowance for the period from the 1st to the 24th January 1907, the date on which he was relieved of the officiating charge, in his bill for January 1907.

Under the circumstances I beg you will be so good as to inform me to which of the two officers the local allowance should be passed. Pending receipt of orders, the passing of the allowance claimed by Dr. Achyuta Rao for 24 days in January 1907, has been held in abeyance.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Comptroller.
